Welcome To
Stambaugh High School

Stambaugh, Michigan

Foreword

Education has two primary functions:
To guide the young person in developing himself, his character, personality, and talents: To guide him to an understanding of and participation in the culture in which he lives.

Stambaugh High School strives to accomplish these dual purposes through a broad and comprehensive curriculum and a varied program of extra curricular activities. The classrooms and groups depicted in this book give a pictorial view of our high school life. Success of such a program cannot be measured except by and through the young people who have been students here. Pictures, however, can show some of the means used in our effort to attain these objectives.

To you Seniors who are graduating, this volume should in later years refresh your memories of four short years of directed toil and pleasant associations with fellow students and teachers.

National Honor Society

Bertha Tervo, Marilyn Sleeman, Carol Keenan, Clarice Miotti, Naomi Bodine, Harriett Thornberg, Helen Greenlund, Betty Jochem, Vice-President, Marion Steffani, Treasurer, Helen Longlake, Gerhard Konrad, David Bengry, President, Kenneth Anderson, Jeanne LaBelle, Secretary.

The National Association of High School Principal organized the National Honor Society in 1921 with the end in view of stimulating scholarship and worthy personality development. Today there are over 2,700 chapters in the best high schools in the country. The LaFayette McQuown chapter of the National Honor Society was organized in 1935.

Students who scholastically rank in the upper third of their class are automatically candidates for membership. Fifteen percent of each Senior class may be eventually elected from those candidates who rank highest in character, leadership, and service in high school activities.

The objectives of this society are:

1. To encourage scholarship.
2. To stimulate a desire to serve.
3. To create worthy character.
4. To develop constructive leadership.

Student Council

The Purpose

When a Student Council is first founded, it is usually done in order to acquire a closer and better relationship between the students at large and the faculty. As a result it acts as a loudspeaker, through which opinions can be exchanged on how to make a school a better place. There are limitations to the amount of power a council can have. In our school we do not assume the authority of making rules and regulations on disciplinary measures for experience has taught that an organization of this kind is not successful.

To many the Student Council is a group that puts on various activities during the year. However, this is only a minor purpose. Also it is often recognized as a body which represents the school, since there are members from each home room in it. Still the main function is to be a place for the exchange of ideas, which purpose the Student Council could serve much better, if everybody would accept it as such.

HEY.

The Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs, under the direction of Miss Phyllis McEldowney, have this year presented a Christmas concert, a winter concert featuring excerpts from "South Pacific," and, with the Speech Department, the operetta, "The Mikado." From these two groups are selected the thirty member a capella chorus, the girls' sextette, and the girls' barber shop quartet. The vocal department will send students to Interlochen and the Northern Choral Clinic this summer on scholarships.
